Any explanations for counties not documented come from Wikipedia as a background- I do not take credit for anything but collecting the data.

Leinster Pugh / Pew / Pue / Pues / Phewsete- What We Know and What We Don't Know

Carlow- Seems to be more COI than RC Pugh/Pews in Carlow.

Pue-Pews-Pugh found in these areas:

The map shows the Carlow region in Ireland. Callouts point to the following locations:

- #1, #2, #3 in Carlow
- #4 Ballyshane is in the Electoral Division of Clonmore, in Civil Parish of Creirim, in the Barony of Rathvilly, in the County of Carlow- very close to Wicklow
- #6 Old Leighlin is a small village in County Carlow, Ireland, 3.5 km west of Leighlinbridge. The site was at one time one of the foremost monastic houses in Leinster, with 1500 monks in residence. The cathedral is still there but was taken by the Church of Ireland during the reformation. This is now known as "Old Leighlin" and has no R.C. church. It is a tiny village. Very close to Kilkenny.
- #5 St Mullin's is also called Diocese of Kildare and Leighlin

	#1. John Pew and wife Ann dob app 1750- their son George Pew was born 1774 The rest I am guessing are his children, born in Carlow Parish, dates work. Mary Pew and Robert Miller m 1816, dob app 1796 Edward Pew, father of Bridget, dob app 1800 (Bridget m William Sheehan in 1848)	COI- all are spelled Pew, I suspect they are all related.
	#2. Joseph Pugh, 1804-1879 bachelor -was a flour dealer-on Tullow Street/(Carlow) and Anne Pugh also listed in 1806-1886-Provision dealer on Tullow Street. She has a will that names a brother John in Arthone, Kilkenny - she has a shop with Joseph so I suspect they are also siblings but he wasn't named in the will as he had already passed. I suspect this is John in Westmeath, Athlone. His father is listed as Barnabus-possible Barnaby- the name is rare.	Probably COI

Leinster Pugh / Pew / Pue / Pues / Pnewsetc- What We Know and What We Don't Know

	Barnaby Pew has land in Barragh, Newtown in 1825 (could this be the same as Barnabus? in Kilkinney?) Joseph Pew had land in Ballynoe/Newtown/Townland Ardoyne- not sure if it is the one who had the flour business. Both of these locations are in the Barony of Forth, very close to each other.
	#3 Martin Pugh/Pew 1862-1924 died in the County Home. He was on the census records as a groom and death records show his occupation as a jockey. He was a bachelor. There are records for another Martin, but dates are off- possibly 2 different people but dates could also be wrong 1901 census Address Tullow Street Groom, works for William Walsh. Age 56 dob 1845 b County Kildare. There is a Martin born 1843 to William Pew and Ellen Cooney in Kildare. 1911 census Address Yellow Street Groom, works for John Whelen Age 55 dob 1856 b County Carlow	All records are RC
	#4. Pews in Aghold Parish- address Ballyshane Shusan and George Ireland, m 1820, date app 1790- also in Wicklow data base Jevis/Jervis-died 1820 - also in Wicklow data base Jervis gave a detailed account of the attack on Carlow by the rebels in July 1798. Musgrave, R. (1801). Memoirs of the Different Rebellions in Ireland, from the Arrival of the English ... The second edition. Ireland: John Milliken.	COI-Potentially could be related to family #1 based on spelling and location
	#5 Paddy and Seisely Pugh, dob app 1770 RC St Mullens Diocese of Kildare and Leighlin they had a daughter Bridget born in 1808.	RC
	#6 Thomas Pue 1759-1781 died at age 22 as a bachelor, in Old Leighlin	?
	There is an Arthur Pugh in the Petty Session records. He was an RC constable in 1918, born in 1892 per Ancestry records. Their daughter Ellen Joan Pugh was born in 1920. He was married to Ellen (Nellie) O'Shea 1917 in Athlone.	See EC Mayo Tree.

Kildare

#1 William Pugh Soldier and Mary Forsyth married in 1812, app dob 1782. Clane COI. Another record for a draft registration for Wm Pugh, Kildare, was found for 1813- DOB app 1789. Same one?

#2 William Pew and Ellen Cooney (1st 2 children record Ellen as mother and the 3rd says Ellen Cooney) dob app 1800. Suncroft. They had the following children: Esther (1833-?) m. Jeremiah Ball in 1859, John (1835-?) and Martin (1843-?). Esther has a Pat Pew as a witness to her marriage-unknown who that could be. Martin was in Petty Sessions for being drunk in 1908.

#3 Another William Pew (1807-1882) is in Kilcullen, married to Mary (1825-1900). They have a daughter Mary (1856-?) who married Peter Groves in 1889. Looks like they also have a son Thomas Pew, born 1882 no father's name recorded, mother Mary Pew-Old Kilcullen/Naas. His father died in 1882, so that may be why his name was not on the birth records. Thomas got in trouble for larceny and spent a month in jail when he was 16.

1901 census Thomas is living with Mary Groves, listed as brother, age 30. Mary's age is 56. Address Nicholstown.

1911 census Thomas is living with brother Robert, born 1889. There is a big age difference between Mary and Thomas and Robert. If his father died in 1882, Robert must be a step brother/his mother had him at age of 64? Or the dates/relationships are wrong. Doesn't make a lot of sense but the records are clearly connected.

#4 Robert Pugh is a gardener in Naas and has a son Robert, who married Rebecca Mc Laughlin when he was in the service. Later they have three children born in Dublin: John Thomas (1876-1876), Harriet (1877-?), Robert (1878-?). Robert is listed as a messenger/23rd Reg.

#5 James Pugh and Bridget Hogan, born in Wicklow- she was born in Kildare- see Dublin. His parents were James and MaryAnne Byrne. He is a soldier. See SOD records. James or his father were in Petty Records for being drunk and assault 1890 and 1891.

#6 William Thomas Pugh- soldier-born in Westmeath, m Mary Agnes Byrne, had 3 daughters, Florence Mary (1889-?), Mary Ellen (1890-1892) and Ellen Christina (1891-?). There was a Constable Pugh in Naas in 1921. Wm Thomas's father was also named William, born in Worcester.

Leinster Pugh / Pew / Pue / Pues / Pheuwete- What We Know and What We Don't Know

- 10 Martin Pugh 1886 and 1887 -drunk in Castlecomer, most likely Martin from Kildare
- 11 Agnes Pugh 1905 drunk in Ballyragget- not likely to be Agnes above, who would be age 78 in 1905-probably Edward's wife.
- 12 Military records on a Thomas who was court martialled for being drunk. Possibly Thomas from Kildare

The earliest RC records were found in the Ossary Diocese, which may or may not be Kilkenny, as that Diocese covers a lot of counties, but the office is in Kilkenny.

- 3 Esther Pue dob app 1768 m Robert McDowell 1788
- 4 Barnabus Pue dob app 1770 m Sarah Hogan m 1795.
- 5 Hugh Pew dob app 1890 and Mary Campion had son John 1818, also Diocese of Ossary but indicated Kilkenny, St Canice's, Kilkenny city, Ireland
- 6 Pat Pew dob app 1850 and Marg Mines at St Canice's daughter Catharine b 1876
- 7 John Pue dob app 1800 and Sally Dunn had Mary (Peggy)Pue born in Johnstown in 1830.

8 Elizabeth Pugh 1941 born in Urlingford-mother Kennedy.

9 There are records for John as the heir or executor for Annie Pugh who died in 1886 - address Arthone? Unable to find town in Kilkenny. There is also a will for Anne Pugh in Carlow who names her brother John in what looks like Arthone. There is a John in Athlone, married to Rosanna Whitesides- his father is Barnabus and there is a Barnaby who owns land in Carlow. Most likely father and mother are Barnabus and Sarah. Anne in Carlow was born 1806 and her brother Joseph born in 1804. John in Athlone was born 1821.

Leinster Pugh / Pew / Pue / Pues / Phewsets- What We Know and What We Don't Know

Laois- formerly known as Queens County. Laois and Kilkenny were formerly ancient kingdom of Ossary.

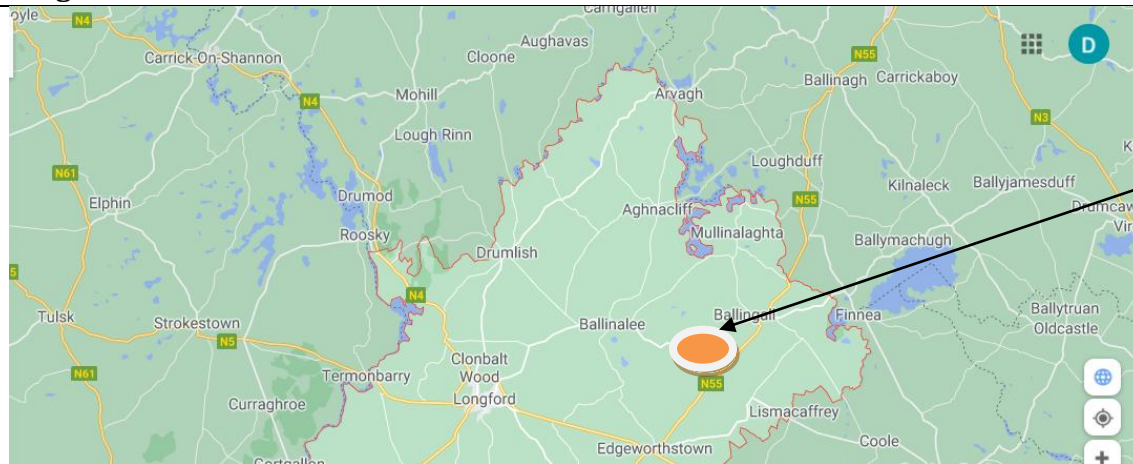

Very few records found in Laois.

Mary Pugh b 1814 in jail in 1844 for assault, arrested in Dublin, born Abbeyleix

Mary Phew 1906, residence Laois, sentenced in Dublin for illegal possession of brass, to Mountjoy Prison. No dob, but she lived on Queens Terrace, could be related to the Dublin Pughs.

Mrs. Alice Puey was in PS as a complainant, against her tenants in Portarlinton in 1895.

Longford All RC

Longford is the 4th smallest county in Ireland. Originally called “Annaly” from the 9th to 15th centuries.

Predominately Catholic.

Most Longford Pues lived in Granard and were Catholic.

Peu, they Pue or Pew, later Pugh.

The names Laurence and Eugene are unique.

George Pew, born about 1760, filed for losses of a colt during the 1798. According to FMP “The main bulk of these records are the names of those who made claims to the government about losses they had sustained as a result of the fighting. These claimants, unsurprisingly, all identified themselves as loyalists to the parliament when making their claims. The claims were made by people from all walks of life and vary from substantial to far more modest. Not all claims were granted and many were not granted for the full amount claimed”.

Leinster Pugh / Pew / Pue / Pues / Pnewsetc- What We Know and What We Don't Know

Griffiths	Anne Pugh in Granardkill, leasing from Rev Edward McGaver, has a house, next to the RC graveyard. I suspect she works for the priest.
Early records were found on http://www.igp-web.com/ There are several names that appear first- they could all be siblings: George Peu dob app 1760 Brigida Pue who married James Devlin dob app 1770 B. Name was spelled Peu in the church records on line, but Pue/Pew in FMP and rootsireland.ie
There are three Georges born 1760, 1792 and 1797 but several marriages-making assumptions based on date of birth of children

Louth-Mostly RC

Another George Pew, who I believe is the brother to Francis in County Meath, died in the workhouse in Drogheda, as did his wife Bridget. There is also Mary Pew 1784-1847 who died in the Drogheda WH. I suspect she is also related to the Pews in County Meath

County Louth is a coastal county in Ireland and is bordered by the counties of Meath to the south, Monaghan to the west, Armagh to the north and Down to the north-east, across Carlingford Lough. Smallest county in Ireland. https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/County_Louth

Early birth records show up around the same time as County Meath. Spelling Pue/Pew/Pugh/Peugh. George is a common name.

George Pew and Catherine Brogan dob app 1760 Drogheda RC

Two sons George 1788 and Luke 1792

Leinster Pugh / Pew / Pue / Pues / Pheuwete- What We Know and What We Don't Know

Offaly County Offaly was formerly known as King's County, in honor of Philip II of Spain.

Phillips or Killaderry

First Pue was Barbara Pue buried in Killaderry in 1757. Religion unknown.

Henry Pew and Mary Connor had 8 children in Edenderry 1825-1840 RC. Griffiths show a Mary in Edenderry, probably Henry's wife? She lives on Main Street, appears to rent to others, one being a butcher. Further up there is a baker. Main Street would probably be the commercial area.

Michael Pue and Anne Smythe had John Pue in 1800 in Daingean/Phillips. RC

James Pue and Bridget Hanley were married in Kilkormac

Elizabeth Pue lived in Ballyboy, married to Rev Nicholas Tubbs, probably COI. Ballyboy is a village south of Kilkormac.

Most Irish Pughs were PEW or PUE on baptism or marriage records

Leinster Pugh / Pew / Pue / Pues / Pnewsete- What We Know and What We Don't Know

Westmeath

Hugh Pew of 75th Reg and Bridget Lenihan dob app 1800 Mullingar, Westmeath RC

Bridget Puet born in Clonmellon 1805 to John and Catherine, north of Mullingar next to the Meath border.

John Pugh (1801-1890) m widower Rosanna Whitesides in 1853. He is a pensioner on his death records so I suspect he is Constable John Pugh found in Moate Petty Sessions from 1835-1839. He was a farmer when they married in Athlone, father Barnabus also a farmer (in Carlow?) COI

Anne Pew and James Mitchele m 1836 dob app 1810 Ballinabrackey (says Westmeath, but really Meath)

There was also one given to Constable Pugh in Brawney, Westmeath in 1898 (Next to Athlone?) See EC tree.

Elizabeth and Thomas Pugh, both died in 1915, Franciscan Nun and Brother- siblings? Golden Island.

Griffiths: John in Pishanagh, Barracks Parish of Drumranney
 Probably John Pugh, brother to Annie whose will was in Carlow and Kilkenny. Father Barnabus in Carlow. COI
 Also records for John Pugh, Mullingar age 33 wounded- severely fractured left thigh and wounded left leg. If this is him the year would have been 1834.

*Robert and Patrick Pugh, Forth, Tithe Defaulters in 1831 (south of Wexford)- see orange dot

The names in these records are of those who refused to pay the tithe and whom were recorded by the Church of Ireland clergy. There are 1,061 pages of names of Tithe Defaulters, and 29,027 names. This is a unique record of these people at the time that the various Schedules were compiled, namely, in June, July and August, 1832. Since the 1831 census was almost completely destroyed in 1922, this is a doubly important source for these areas.

Leinster Pugh / Pew / Pue / Pues / Pheuwete- What We Know and What We Don't Know

Wicklow-Also entered into Ancestry Early spelling was Pew/Pue, changed to Pugh over time, mostly RC

The Pues in Aghavannagh, Wicklow were Church of Ireland

See "John Pew, Esq." timeline and story

Lancelot Pue lived in Ardenary Wicklow 1669, per Arklow Hearth Money Rolls. His father was an alderman in Dublin, John Pue d. 1650. It seems more than a coincidence that they have land close together. However, Esq John had a son John who died, so not likely to be directly related, but possibly cousins.

1. John Pue Esquire land was described as Tigromen/Tyeroname, Wicklow. His date of birth would be app 1630? and he died in 1699.

His land is also described as Aghavannagh in the court documents.

Other COI Pues include two in the Castlemacadem Cemetery: Thomas and Charles "Here lieth the body of Thos/Pue decd Feb 8th 1772 ag^d/22 years also his brother Charles Pue/ died July 8th 1845 ag^d 91.

Mary Pue died 1750 and Thomas Pue died 1747 -no location other than Wicklow Parish.

Shusan/Susan Pew m George Ireland in 1820 in Aghold Parish.

Gustavey and Isabella Pew have a daughter named Ellen in 1838 in Newcastle Parish.

There are records for two births, Charles William b. 1916 and Cyril Alexander b 1918 to Thomas Pew and Mary Elizabeth Wynne, he is a painter and decorator from Cumberland. Lastly there is Anne Pugh born in 1951, mother's maiden name is Witt, registration district Rathdown.

Leinster Pugh / Pew / Pue / Pues / Pnewsete- What We Know and What We Don't Know

There are three families that are RC- found in Killaveny, Bray and Avoca (map of Wicklow Catholic records)

<https://www.johngrenham.com/browse/counties/rcmaps/wicklowrc.php>

One family in Avoca:

Margaret Pue m Michael Keating in 1827.

(Newbridge/Redcross)

The next three families are most likely to be related. I have a separate story for John Pew and Bridget Kennedy, with transcripts of the newspapers reporting on his murder in 1843. See stories on murder.

Killaveny is very close to the border of Wexford.

1. John¹Pew and Bridget Kennedy dob app 1783 Kilavenny m 1814 (kids were all born before parents were married-confirmed in church records.

They had 4 children:

1. James (1800-) m Eliza Charlotte English- they had three children and then immigrated to Missouri on board the Ticonderoga during the famine 1850's
2. John 1814 m Mary Walsh -lived at home when his father was murdered
3. Elizabeth b 1817
4. Hester/Esther b 1824- m Andrew Loughlan

2. Andrew Pew and Eliza Evans-daughter Catherine b in Wicklow in 1822. The newspapers reported John's son went to stay in Dublin with his uncle for awhile- on Clarence Place. There is an Andrew in Dublin who was born in Wicklow, his mother was Esther, both buried in Glasnevin Cemetery. Cemetery notes say Andrew was the first one to live on Clarence. He and Peter Pew were dairymen in Dublin.

I believe John and Andrew were brothers and if so, that would mean the "Dublin Andrew" was married three times. See notes on Clarence Place. Did he leave for Dublin after his first wife's death? Also, Catherine must have died as he had a Catherine with Anne. Maybe at childbirth?

Children of John and Bridget Kennedy James Jarvis² (1800-) m Eliza Charlotte English in 1842. His findagrave obit confirms he is the son of John who was murdered. They had the following children in Ireland:

John Pew 1843

James Thomas Pew 1845

Henry 1847

Elizabeth Pugh 1850

His family ended up in Missouri. James is a retired merchant in 1870 and he and his wife and four children are in St Louis, Missouri, as well as Frank 1858, Andrew 1862, Thomas 1864, Lilly and Lizzie 1867. On the 1880 census his nephew John is living there, age 30 (1850)- has to be John son of John and Mary.

John² m. Mary Walsh abt 1843, they had the following children:

John (1844-1881)

Anne (1847-?)

James (1847-?)

Elizabeth (1851-1901)

Margaret (1858-?)

Richard Joseph b 1864- birth records /1867-1829 death records.

In Dublin there are death records for a 2 yr Richard 1864-1866. No other information. Possibly 2 Richards?

Henry (1867-1937) m Charlotte Jones Mary Oneil in 1902

Newspaper articles reporting the murder indicated John had a son James who was recently married. James was a sponsor for John's daughter

Leinster Pugh / Pew / Pue / Pues / Pheusec- What We Know and What We Don't Know

Anne. Betty Pew (English) was sponsor for their son John. Their families had similar naming patterns. Each had a James and John and Henry, leading me to think one of those names would be their father's per naming pattern. He was a farmer, according to wife's death records.
1901 Residents of a house 16 in Rosnastraw (Kilpipe, Wicklow) wife Mary in census with sons Richard b 1866 and Henry- the others passed away or immigrated?
1911 Richard Single farmer living at Rosnastraw (Kilpipe, Wicklow) b 1873 Father John must have passed before 1901.
Henry³son of John and Mary Walsh. Henry was a horse trader/trainer and died of a skull fracture- inquest was held, I could not find outcome. He has one son: John (possibly Sidney John 1904) who married Elizabeth Byrne Henry was living with his mother and brother Richard in 1901- he married Charlotte the next year. She was a widower, had been married to an Oneil. She had a son Gilbert Oneil who was with her at her death and a daughter. It looks like her maiden name was Jones. She died in 1953.	In 1911 he appears to be living alone although he is listed as married at 17 Leitrim. Unable to find Charlotte in 1911 census. 1915 records show Henry Pughe 1873 aged 42 b. in Tinnahely, Wicklow, no fixed residence, occupation horseman, in Mountjoy Prison for 6 months for neglect of child. Other name Lottia Pughe, address Killamay Road, Bray. He was also found in petty sessions prior to that.
Lastly there is James dob abt 1800 and Bridget/Biddy Byrnes. Probably not related to any above. Their address is Rathdrum/Bray. They don't appear to be related to SOD Pugh's, but naming pattern in similar. They have the following children: Charles 1825 Edward 1827 Jane 1829 James 1833 Bridget 1833 PR for a James born 1803, in 1838 accused of larceny in the house.	So many Byrne families in Wicklow, very confusing. Possibly a brother to James Pugh's (1824) father Thomas? Charles is living on Mainstreet Bray in 1858 "The premises comprised in this lot are situate on the west side of the Main-street of Bray, on the south side of the premises occupied as the Constabulary Barracks, from which it is separated by a passage nine feet wide common to both tenements. There are two dwelling-houses in front to the street, occupied respectively William Critchley and Charles Pew". Was he a soldier?
Unknown: Emrys Henry Pugh born Shillelagh in 1848	Possible grandson of Henry? There was an Emrys Henry Pugh who co-owned Pooltown Road Garage in Chester, England, with Wm Arthur Pugh?
