Mary Pugh dob app 1834 m Michael Bently 1854

Rose Pew, daughter of Luke and Mary Pew, who must have moved from Dublin

James ²1824 (son of Thomas and Anne) m. Mary Ann Byrne in 1844 and had 11 children. He died in 1882 and is buried in James and his family lived between Wickow and the Kingstown area. Buried in Deansgrange cemetery with wife and son Edward. According to their children's records, James occupation was a quarry man or stone cutter.

Time Line of James and Mary Ann Byrne

It appears that James b. 1824 was in trouble with the law as a teenager and sent to Australia for seven years in 1838. Seems pretty harsh for the crimes, which to me would indicate that they were very poor.

1837 He was caught stealing candles and also with the intent to steal clothes. Did time in Kilmainham Prison. Records show he was 11 and 12 but he was 13 and 14 at that time.

1838 Caught stealing fruit out of a garden with another 14 year old named Patrick Dowling. B Malloy Esq. filed charges. The boys got one month confinement in Kilmainham.

1838 Strong Suspicion of Committing Robberies (with 3 other boys/men) Time in Kilmainham

1838 Breach of the Peace Sent to Kilmainham

1838 Having a stolen purse in his possession

1838 Vagrancy 5 times/B Malloy Esq. -- Sentenced to 7 years transportation - Sentenced to 7 years transportation

1844 married Mary Ann Byrne-they didn't have children until 1849

1849 John, born Kingstown

1851 Bridget m. John Westcott in 1872, a sea man, in the Monkstown Church of Ireland. The rest of the family appears to be RC.

1852 Marianne m. John Williams, a stonecutter in 1872 in Glasthule

1853 Elizabeth m. Laurence Upton in 1873 at Ballybrack

1854 James Wicklow - There are two birth records, James and Jane, but on close inspection they are the same.

He was in the North Dublin Union in 1865 and in Kilmainham in 1875 for being disorderly in a public house.

1856 Thomas b. Bray- records are found for Thomas b in Wicklow, living in Liverpool in 1911. His wife is Rose Ann, from Liverpool, and he has four children, Marg age 24, Catherine age 23, Christopher age 21, and Ethel age 19.

1858 Mary A requested help getting clothes so she could go out of the house- refused. Not sure this is the correct family but they did have a lot of trouble.

1859 Charles b. Bray -trouble with the law 1876-1887-see below

1861 Joseph rootsireland records say Stephen but it is clear on the actual record that it's Joseph- b. Bray. There is a Joseph who married Angelina Spring/Sprigg in England and he was the father of Bertram from Birmingham who was in Dublin in the early 1900's.

1863 Edward Edward b. 1863 in Bray. There is a death record for Edward Pugh, 1862-1866 from Bray Head I suspect a discrepancy in dates. He is also buried in Deansgrange Cemetery with his parents

South of Dublin Pue / Pew / Pugh's

1865 Mary Ann starts having trouble with the law

1866 Catherine m Patrick Hoey in 1939. There is also a record for a Catherine with the same birth date that was in the prison records for being a victim of abuse. Had trouble with the law 1887-1903.

1869 Patrick born in Glasthule.

There are also the following records that are probably James.

1875 James Pugh b. 1818 age 57 in Kingston, Res. Albert Road, Kingston Indecent Assault on 9 yr old daughter. Kilmainham Victims name Cath Pugh she was born 1866.

1876 James Pugh b. 1816 age 60 laborer res Kingston sick Rathdown Union Workhouse

1882 James Pugh 1812 age 70 sick born in Kingston. Died in Rathdown Union Workhouse of brain disease

The date of birth does not match James, but the name of Catherine matches.

1899-1902 Mary Anne in trouble with the law

Charles (1859), appears to be the son of James and Mary Anne Byrne. Kilmainham Prison unless stated otherwise.

1876 no date of birth, Charles Pugh was a victim of assault by Patrick White

1876 dob 1858 Age 18 from Bray Co Wicklow Assaulted a police constable
